On September 15, 2010 Huntington Park Detectives were at Hernandez' home conducting a follow up investigation. Hernandez was being accused of exposing himself to a young female near Gage Jr. High that had occurred on September 1, 2010. Investigators developed enough probable cause to obtain a search warrant.

Investigators confiscated Hernandez' computer and other items from his home. Searching the computers, Investigators found a large quantity of child pornography. Investigators also located video images where Hernandez recorded himself engaging in lewd conduct with a young female student. At the time of Hernandez' arrest he was employed by Inglewood School District as a substitute teacher.

Hernandez was booked at Huntington Park Police Department and his bail was enhanced to $500,000 but at the time of his arraignment it was reduced. Hernandez was able to post bail. Hernandez' preliminary hearing was scheduled for September 30, 2010. He failed to appear and is believed to have fled to Mexico.

There currently is a $60,000 warrant issued for his arrest.
